Annual Business Meeting Slated for May 10 at Schoolhouse

The annual meeting of the Larsmont Community Club will be held at the Little Red Schoolhouse on Thursday, May 10, 2007. President Bill Tranah will call the meeting to order at 7 p.m.

One of major topics of discussion will be the annual community picnic and fund-raiser, setting a date for the annual event in 2007. Traditionally it has been held in August. Last year, the picnic was held near the end of August, but in previous years it was toward the beginning of the month. A comparison of the success of turnout between the two dates will be made in deciding a date for this year. All are welcome to contribute.

Other activities for the year will include another painting party for the upkeep of the Little Red Schoolhouse. Last year volunteers helped to paint the slate siding the historic red color that identifies the schoolhouse. Later, the slates were installed on two sides of the building by Gary, Greg and Steve Swanson. Two additional sides of siding will be painted this summer, with final installation later, after the siding has dried. Painting dates will be determined.

Other Club action will concern covering the cost of heating for wintertime events, other summertime projects and sources of funding, plus the election of officers. A reminder that all officer positions are open for nominations from the floor, so if you'd like to be involved in helping the community, now is the time to step forward.

Any resident can be a member of the Larsmont Community Club with an annual payment of $10 in dues. Paid dues allows one free use of the Schoolhouse by the member. Dues and any donations for the Building Fund should be sent to Larsmont Community Club secretary Marlys Wisch, 489 Swanson Rd., Larsmont, MN 55616.

New in Larsmont

The bids have been opened and it looks like the road work has begun on the paving of Country Road 101 and other roads in the area. Grading has commenced, can paving be very far behind?

Been to the Moose? Our newest business in town is the Mocha Moose, where all kinds of folks are gathering each day for a fresh round of java. Go Patti!

The picnic tables are down and the snowbirds are on their way back to area campgrounds. Can summer be far behind?

Deer herds seem to be denser this spring. Time to keep an extra watchful eye on road crossings from Larsmont to Two Harbors. Slow down and give them a brake, please.

Recognize Anyone in this Photograph?

The annual Larsmont Picnic, July 4, 1925

The annual picnics in Larsmont have been held for many years, as far back as anyone can remember. Many a photo album has Larsmont's history hidden in the pages, but at least one notable remembrance hangs on the wall in the Little Red Schoolhouse.

At the Larsmont Picnic last August, everyone in attendance gathered round the picture of the July 4, 1925, picnic held at the schoolhouse. Who was at that event and who remembers others in the picture? Well, there was some recollecting being done. Mille Miller found herself in the picture, as did one or two others. Trying to pinpoint the families and their children became somewhat of a game.

This year at the picnic, the organizers are hoping the folks will dig out the albums to share with their friends. Donations of historic photos will be welcome, too. The picnic will again be held in August, although the exact date has yet to be set.

Come to the annual meeting on May 10 at 7 p.m. and contribute your thoughts to the process. See you there.
